Women sweep Seton Hall and Georgetown

The Binghamton women's swimming and diving team remained unbeaten (5-0) with a pair of victories Saturday. The Bearcats defeated host Georgetown, 124-113, and also swam past Seton Hall, 141-91. With a 5-0 record, the women's team is off to its best start since starting 6-0 during the 1999-2000 campaign.

Men gain split against Seton Hall and Georgetown

The Binghamton men's swimming & diving team (3-2) remained above .500 in dual meets this season. The Bearcats defeated Georgetown, 122-114 and lost to Seton Hall, 143-92.

Another record-breaking day for Cai

Sophomore Huijue Cai (Shanghai, China) set two Georgetown pool records, won two individual events, and helped BU's 200 medley relay establish another Georgetown pool record. Cai captured the 50 free in a new school record of 24.50. She also captured the 100 fly in 56.76. Both of those marks were pool records.

Cai was also part of the winning 200 medley relay team which included sophomore Hannah Clegg (Hampshire, England), senior Mary Tennyson (Middletown, N.Y./Pine Bush), Cai and freshman Eden Payabyab (College Point, N.Y./Brooklyn Tech) touched first in 1:51.53.

Clegg also won the 100 back (59.97).

Qu a triple winner

Junior Yun Qu (Hangzhou, China) won three events - the 1000 free (10:45.31), 200 IM (2:12.82) and 500 free (5:08.85). The three wins marked a season-high for Qu who had won twice in each of the three prior meets.

McGuire, Kaczynski lead men's team

Junior Chris McGuire (Essex, England) captured both the 200 IM (1:54.82) and 100 fly (51.55), and sophomore Robert Kaczynski (Tychy, Poland) won the 100 breast (59.45).
