Bearcats split pair of games during week

Binghamton extended its win streak to four games with a 4-2 victory over visiting St. Peter's on Friday before absorbing a 3-1 loss at Navy two days later. Against St. Peter's, BU outshot the Peahens 21-5, but the visitors scored on two of those shots to make things interesting.

"St. Peter's kept fighting and battled hard throughout the game," head coach Jeff Leightman said. "There was a period of time when they were winning every battle, and that led to both of their goals."

Two days later in Annapolis, Md., Navy showed its mettle with a 3-1 victory. The undefeated Mids, who outshot BU 16-2, own an NCAA-best 32-game regular-season unbeaten streak.

"They controlled a good part of the game," Leightman said. "When we went down 2-0 we began to come at them, but couldn't quite get it done."

BU remains unbeaten at home

With the win over St. Peter's, the Bearcats improved to 3-0 at home this season. Since 2000, Binghamton is 20-6-2 at home (.750).

Freshman White continues to shine on offense

Freshman forward Danielle White (Haddon Township, N.J.), fresh off her America East Rookie of the Week honors, tallied two goals and an assist during the week. She now leads the team with four goals and 11 points.

Burnham nets first two collegiate goals

Freshman forward Kelly Burnham (Endicott, N.Y./Union-Endicott) picked up her first two collegiate goals against St. Peter's, scoring BU's second goal at the 29:06 mark and then adding the fourth and final goal in the 80th minute.

"Kelly is coming along nicely," Leightman said. "She did well competing in the box and found that taking physical risks led to her getting good scoring chances."

Up Next: Road games at FDU and Hartford

The Bearcats continue their daunting six-game road swing with games at Fairleigh Dickinson and Hartford this week. Binghamton is 3-0 all-time against FDU, and also upset America East champion Hartford 1-0 last season.
