ALUMNI LEADERS CONFERENCE APRIL 29-30

As alumni leaders, you are partners in premier. We look forward to welcoming you back to campus for an amazing weekend that will connect you to other alumni who share your passion for our University.

The Alumni Leaders Conference is an opportunity to:

EXPLORE our new Alumni Center and see how our University is growing — on campus, in the Greater Binghamton community and globally.

LEARN about opportunities to deepen your relationship with the University and to fulfill a leadership role in guiding our future success.

ENGAGE with senior University administrators and other alumni volunteers.

BE INSPIRED by remarks from senior campus leaders, featured alumni speakers (highlighted below) and recipients of our Alumni Association Special Recognition Awards (to be presented at a reception and dinner).

The ALUMNI LEADERS CONFERENCE will have speeches and presentations by notable alumni and senior campus leaders that will energize you and inspire even greater feelings of Binghamton University pride. We are excited to share that three very accomplished alumni are returning to campus to speak at this year's conference.

Scott Mautz '91, an award-winning, inspirational speaker and 20+ year executive at Procter & Gamble, will deliver the keynote address following Saturday's lunch. He has been named an Inc. magazine "Top 50 Leadership Innovator" and is the author of Make it Matter: How Managers Can Motivate by Creating Meaning. You'll receive a copy of this book, compliments of the Alumni Association, which was named to the "Best of 2015" list by Soundview Executive Book Summaries. Scott will share the power of articulating and pursuing a legacy in the work you do (and in life), and how to do it.

Deborah Tannen '66, LHD '93, a best-selling author and distinguished professor of linguistics at Georgetown University, will lead a Saturday afternoon session on interpersonal conversations. She has published 23 books and more than 100 articles. You Just Don't Understand: Women and Men in Conversation was on the New York Times best-seller list for nearly four years, including eight months as No. 1. Talking from 9 to 5: Women and Men at Work was a New York Times business best seller.

Vincent Daniel '94, general partner of Seawolf Capital in Manhattan, a hedge fund he co-founded, will be the keynote speaker at the Saturday evening awards dinner and reception. He's the investment guru who foresaw the 2008 implosion of the financial industry. His contrarian approach to investing is highlighted in the recent motion picture The Big Short, and he is considered one of the heroes in the film.
