Directions to EAP (Mary Ellen Niefer’s office) - LSG 673 - from the entrances to the library building opposite the Lecture Halls and the Computer Center:

- Come in the library entrance and take the stairs down to the basement level.
- Go in the double doors to the right of the row of vending machines.
- Take an immediate left down the first hallway on your left.
- Go through the glass double doors (Watson Advising office will be on your right).
- Continue to the end of that hallway, almost as if you were exiting the building.
- Instead of exiting the building, take a left through the last hallway door on your left. This is the Asian American Studies Hallway.
- My office is in that hallway. Room LSG 673 - on the right side.

Directions from directly outside the Library Building across from the paid parking lot next to Hinman:

- Walk down the library building path. The path is next to the ramp and between the Library & Engineering Buildings.
- Enter the Library through the 1st external door on your right.
- Take an immediate left down the Asian Studies hallway. My office is in that hallway. Room LSG 673 - on the left side.
