

*Students should be cautious when dealing with potential subletters. It is recommended to meet and conduct monetary transactions in person and/or allow ample time for checks to clear banks. Be especially wary of transactions conducted with money orders or travellers checks. Remember, if something seems suspicious or sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

OCC HOUSEMATE/SUBLETTER FORM

This list is provided/maintained as a service for your convenience. University employees do not inspect, approve or supervise the premises described, and the University does not become party to private roommate/subletter/tenant/landlord matters.

This computer-generated list is available to all students. The information you supply below will be printed on a regular basis for distribution in the OCC office and/or on the OCC webpage.

Please be accurate and descriptive with the information you provide.
