EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

2019-present Coordinator of Educational Leadership and Lecturer, Binghamton University
Responsible for coordinating, teaching courses, and advising students (both CAS and Doctoral) in the Educational Leadership program leading to Certificate of Advanced Studies and NYS Certification as a School District Leader and School Building Leader. Successfully more than doubled enrollment in the Educational Leadership program through close collaboration with needs of school districts, expanding learning opportunities, and tailoring programs to specific students' needs. Launched, in collaboration with Broome-Tioga BOCES and regional school districts a "Grow Our Own Teachers" Diversity Initiative to address both demand for teachers and the diversification of the NYS student population. Presentation and research areas include administrator and teacher job crafting, women and leadership, innovation in schools, family engagement in schools, bullying and school safety, school district management and finance, career development for educational administrators, building leadership strategies for principals and assistant principals, women and negotiation, and transitioning traditional graduate programs to a hybrid or online format. Serve on the Department Doctoral Advisory Committee, the University Graduate Directors Committee, and as a member on dissertation committees.

2019-present Executive Leadership Coach

Provide direct and confidential executive leadership coaching to educational leaders, PreK-12 in all roles from Assistant Principal to Superintendent, to develop and implement organizational and personal leadership goals.

2008-2019 Superintendent of Schools
 Union Endicott Central School District
 1100 East Main Street
 Endicott, NY 13760

Directly responsible for all aspects of the operation of a K-12 Public School District with a population of approximately 3700 students, an $81 million budget with an additional $8.4 million in grants, representing a diverse community, formerly the home of IBM and the industrial center of the region. Report to a 7-member Board of Education, where district goals focus on maximizing student achievement and working closely with the community to provide a strong school system in order to maintain and attract new economic opportunities to the Southern Tier region, within an era of shrinking resources.

1976-2019 Classroom teacher (Michigan, Massachusetts and New York), Assistant Principal (Long Island), Principal (Long Island), Director of Curriculum (Long Island and Endicott), Assistant Superintendent for Business (Endicott), Adjunct Instructor (Lesley University, Hofstra University, SUNY Broome and Binghamton University), and Independent Author for ERS.
