Binghamton University is the only SUNY school requiring all undergraduates to complete a minimum of two General Education credits* for physical activity and wellness.

*Offerings include traditional classroom-based courses, group activities and outdoor activities like tree climbing and back country medicine!

binghamton.edu/bhealthy
#ChooseWellBeWell