Center for Korean Studies Public Events 2019-20
Korean Student Center, Old Champlain (OH) 101

Friday, October 25, 3:00 – 5:00 PM
CKS Colloquium Series
Nam-hee Park
(Children’s Book Writer, International Artist-in-Residence 2019, Arts Council Korea)
“K-Storytelling with “Baby Ghost Whales””

Tuesday, November 5, 10:00 AM – 1:00 PM
Korean Language Class Cultural Event
So-Jin Moon (Lecturer, Department of Asian and Asian American Studies)
“Taste of Korea”

Friday, November 8, 1:00 – 3:00 PM
CKS Invited Speaker Series
Thomas Lancaster (Professor in Political Science, Emory University)
“The Korean Constitutional Court: A Case of Institutional Diffusion?”

Friday, January 31, 5:00 – 7:00 PM
CKS Colloquium Series
Jae Woon Yun
(CKS Visiting Scholar, Professor in History Education, Daegu University, Korea)
“Pre-modern (8-11th Century) Trade/Exchange Network between Korea and Japan”

Friday, March 27, 1:00 – 3:00 PM
CKS Invited Speaker Series
Haerin Shin (Professor in English, Vanderbilt University)
“The Optics of Mutant Vectors: Run-away Neoliberalism in Post-IMF Korean Science Fiction Cinema”

Friday, April 24, 5:00 – 7:00 PM
CKS Colloquium Series
Sung-Hee Ru (Ph.D. Candidate in Sociology, Binghamton University)
“China’s Incorporation Process into the Capitalist World-Economy, 1780s-1890s”

For additional information, please email us (cks@binghamton.edu) or visit our website (cks.binghamton.edu).