~ Summer 2019 Online Courses ~

Term I ~ May 28 - June 28, 2019

CLAS 111 - Word Origins - GenEd: G & Harpur W - Instructor: Valerie Spiller

Useful to those who want to increase English vocabulary for reading and exam preparation, to acquire analytical skills for deciphering unfamiliar terminology in a variety of fields, and to explore the evolution of English. Learn word roots systematically, and read, hear and write about the history of English and influxes of new words from cultures around the world.

CLAS 121 - Scientific/Medical Terminology - Harpur W – Instructor: Valerie Spiller

Systematic study of the structure and formation of medical and scientific terms that are derived from Greek and Latin roots. Provides tools to determine the meaning behind scientific words by breaking down their structure into key prefixes, stems, suffixes as adopted into English. No background knowledge of Greek or Latin is required. Required text and weekly assignments.

CLAS 280W – When in Rome – GenEds: G, H, N & Harpur W – Instructor: Jeffrey Becker

This online course provides an introduction to the culture and civilization of ancient Rome and its ultimately vast empire (history, art, archaeology, architecture, society, culture, and literature). It will cover materials from the origins of the city as an Italian village of the eighth century B.C., to the growth of the city's power to comprise all of Italy, to the Roman conquest of the Mediterranean basin and Western Europe, and conclude with the fall of the Western empire in the fifth century A.D.

Term II ~ July 8 - August 9, 2019

CLAS 121 - Scientific/Medical Terminology - Harpur W - Instructor: Valerie Spiller

Systematic study of the structure and formation of medical and scientific terms that are derived from Greek and Latin roots. Provides tools to determine the meaning behind scientific words by breaking down their structure into key prefixes, stems, suffixes as adopted into English. No background knowledge of Greek or Latin is required. Required text and weekly assignments.

CLAS 380M - Comparative Ancient Mythology - Instructor: Valerie Spiller

Myths from around the globe, including Greek, Roman, Egyptian, Indian and Sumerian/Babylonian. Compare how cultures portray creation, gods and goddesses, heroes, tricksters, etc. Complement/supplement to CLAS 232 Classical Mythology, which IS NOT a prerequisite for CLAS 380M. Required Text: Leeming, World of Myth 2nd ed
