BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY

Commencement

2018

FRIDAY – SUNDAY, MAY 18 – 20, 2018
MESSAGE FROM THE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Graduates, parents and special guests: Commencement is always the highlight of the academic year, for the students we are honoring, especially, but also for the faculty and staff who have helped our students achieve so much. Our graduates now look to the next stage in their lives, with new careers and new relationships ahead. All of us at the University are confident that their experiences at Binghamton will allow them to attain their full potential.

Today’s ceremonies celebrate their achievements as students, scholars and engaged citizens, and mark the turning point when our graduates begin to apply their talents “in the real world.” Whatever the future holds for them, they leave Binghamton with a strong foundation for success.

They will succeed because they already have gained the experiences and knowledge that their careers and future engagements will demand of them. Ours is a campus where students learn by doing, and these graduates have already proven themselves – winning prestigious casework competitions and grants; publishing papers that have gained acclaim from scientists and scholars; and bettering their communities through hands-on internships and practicums.

Outside the classroom, they have embraced their responsibilities as active members of the community. They’ve raised funds to combat deadly disease, provided food for the hungry, taught younger students in local schools, and traveled across the globe to work with and learn from their international peers. Their actions and achievements are inspiring and set a high bar for the classes that will follow, and it is my great wish that they will all remain members of the Binghamton University community.

Our graduates have learned the practical, technical and professional skills that will enable success throughout their careers. But most important, Binghamton University has provided the foundation in the liberal arts and participation in a diverse and international student body that gives all our students the understanding and perspectives they need to address the challenges of the coming decades.

While our focus is on our students, we appreciate that Commencement is a shared celebration. It recognizes not only the talents and perseverance of our graduates, but also the dedication and commitment of the outstanding faculty who helped them learn. And most of all, it allows us to recognize the support and guidance of families and friends. I hope that everyone here today will find special meaning in these ceremonies. Thank you for all you have done for our students.

It has been a pleasure to witness the achievements of the Class of 2018. Graduates, thank you for choosing Binghamton University. I am pleased and proud to celebrate with you today, certain that you are well prepared for the future and that your accomplishments will be significant.

Sincerely,

Harvey G. Stenger
President

MESSAGE FROM THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT

Congratulations to you, the amazing Class of 2018! Among the many gifts you’ll receive, allow me to add one that has tremendous value and will be with you for your entire life – automatic membership in the Binghamton University Alumni Association. This privilege is not to be underestimated, and with your participation it can provide you with concrete social and professional benefits.

One of the most valuable benefits is your membership in a powerful alumni network of about 134,000 graduates. We have alumni in every state and in more than 100 countries. We bring alumni together throughout the year through events no matter where you live. There are several chapters across the country and if you want to start one in your city, just let us know.

Regardless of where you live, you can always find Binghamton graduates online. I strongly encourage you to immediately engage with this vast network through our Facebook page, LinkedIn groups and other social media properties, and be sure that your information is always up-to-date in our online directory, B-connected. These are all available through binghamton.edu/alumni. Please find us and help us find you.

For those of you in the Metro New York region, join us in a few weeks at a special welcome event for the Class of 2018; look for an email invitation with the date, location and details. Come back to campus this Oct. 5–7 for Homecoming and, when you do, be sure to visit your Alumni Center, located right in the heart of campus!

As you move on and become successful in the next chapter in your life, I hope you’ll think about the generations of Binghamton students that will follow and consider ways to connect with them. The Alumni Association can help you pay it forward in many different ways depending on your interests and available time.

Until then, I wish you all the best and look forward to being in touch! #BingPride

Warmest regards,

Gary Kibel ’90, MBA ’92
HONORARY DEGREES

Binghamton University, in addition to awarding baccalaureate, master's and doctoral degrees for work completed at the University, looks outside itself to identify individuals who, by their accomplishments, represent what the University values and strives to instill in its graduates. It may be scholarly attainment, it may be artistic excellence, it may be a life of outstanding service. These are exceptional individuals in all fields of endeavor who serve as role models and inspirations for students and faculty alike. It is for these reasons that Binghamton University recognizes them with an honorary degree from the State University of New York – Doctor of Fine Arts, Doctor of Humane Letters, Doctor of Laws or Doctor of Science. In doing so, the University not only celebrates their achievements, but also claims them proudly as having a special relationship with Binghamton University.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Ali Çarkoğlu

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

Ali Çarkoğlu, professor, higher education administrator, political commentator and pathbreaker, earned his bachelor’s and master’s degrees in economics from Turkey’s Boğaziçi University in 1986 and 1988, respectively. He received another master’s degree in economics from Rutgers University in 1989, and a PhD in political science from Binghamton University in 1994.

He is among the most prominent and accomplished political scientists in Turkey. His work has led to a more comprehensive understanding of Turkey's political evolution over the past 30 years, and has examined critical elements of Turkey's development as a nation, including the growth of philanthropy and civil society, the establishment of democratic traditions, the rise of conservatism in Turkish politics, and the role of local and central governments in policy making and political Islam.

Collaboration between Binghamton and Turkish universities has been made stronger with Çarkoğlu playing a vital role as a key faculty liaison in stimulating interest at critical early stages of setting up and organizing the dual-diploma program in Global and International Affairs. He remains a research partner with Michael McDonald, professor of political science and director of Binghamton University's Center on Democratic Performance; with David Campbell, associate professor of public administration; and in cooperation with A. Serdar Atav, professor of health policy and research in the Decker School of Nursing.
Asunción Cummings Hostin
DOCTOR OF LAWS

Asunción Cummings “Sunny” Hostin, former federal prosecutor, columnist, social commentator and multi-platform journalist, enrolled at Binghamton University as an Educational Opportunity Program (EOP) student at the age of 16, received her bachelor’s degree in English and rhetoric in 1990, and earned her law degree from Notre Dame Law School in 1994.

Currently the senior legal correspondent and analyst for ABC News and co-host since 2016 of ABC Daytime’s morning show The View, she has been an assistant U.S. attorney in the District of Columbia, specializing in child sex crimes, and was also a managing director of Business Intelligence and Investigations at Kroll, the world’s leading risk-consulting company.

She also has been a legal analyst for CNN, appearing on several of its shows. In 2008, she was named to Crain’s 40 Under 40 New York’s Rising Stars list and she is the recipient of the Alvin McKenna Alumnus of the Year Award from Notre Dame Law School.

Hostin serves on the Harpur Advisory Council and has been the featured speaker for the Alumni Association Special Recognition Awards Ceremony, a panelist during the 2015 Metro Career Night and a speaker for the 2015 student-organized TEDxBinghamtonUniversity conference, speaking on “Three Stages of Discovering One’s Purpose in Life: A Possibility Model.”

Hostin lives with her husband, orthopedic surgeon Dr. Emmanuel Hostin, and her son and daughter, in Westchester County, NY. She and her husband are part owners of Alvin & Friends Restaurant in New Rochelle, NY., which serves contemporary cuisine with Southern and Caribbean flavors.
Aaron Mair
DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

Aaron Mair, one of the founders of the environmental justice movement, graduated from Binghamton University in 1984 with a bachelor’s degree in history and sociology. He also earned a certificate in Southwest Asia and North Africa Studies. He attended the Naval Education and Training Center in Rhode Island and the American University in Cairo, Egypt, and completed doctoral work at Binghamton University in political science, with the exception of a dissertation.

He is an epidemiological-spatial analyst with the New York State Department of Health, and an ad-hoc public health community disaster responder, including for the World Trade Center disaster.

In May 2015, he was elected the 57th president of the national Sierra Club, one of the largest and most effective environmental organizations in the world, by its more than 1.3 million members. He is the first African-American to hold the position.

Mair made an inspiring visit to campus in October 2016, explaining that he wanted students to understand that Binghamton University is where he learned the critical thinking, arguing and communication skills that positioned him for his role as an environmental justice pioneer. He also made a point to visit the Educational Opportunity Program (EOP), which had given him the opportunity to attend college.

Mair co-hosts the AM radio talk show “News, Views, and Interviews” for WROW in Albany, N.Y., and serves on the Office of Public Health Practice, Public Health Information Group, working to identify geographic information system (GIS) capabilities and resources.

He resides in Schenectady, N.Y.

ALUMNA MESSAGE

Jessica Stanis, MPA ’15, MSW ’15

It is my pleasure to congratulate you on your graduation. For the past few years, you’ve been focused on life at Binghamton University’s College of Community and Public Affairs and now you’re about to enter the world beyond Binghamton University. As you begin the next chapter in your journey, remember that you are the author of your life story. What kind of story do you want for your life? In the final chapter in the book of your life, what will have been written? Heading out into the world, you get to make that choice.

Like you, I’m a graduate of the College of Community and Public Affairs, and graduated with my MPA and MSW in 2015. The College of Community and Public Affairs is a reputable school with rigorous coursework. At times, I’m sure you may have asked yourself if it’s worth the long nights, hard work and effort. Having graduated from this school, I can tell you with 100 percent certainty that it is.

Joining the MPA and MSW program and seeing it to completion was one of the best decisions of my life. I was able to learn from some of the most qualified and devoted faculty out there who continue to serve as my inspiration. The College of Community and Public Affairs gave me the knowledge, skills and confidence to pursue my dream job...after only two years out of school! I’m now the director of the Binghamton Rescue Mission, a nonprofit organization with a mission of ending hunger and homelessness. I was able to accomplish my 10-year goal in only two years! One may argue that perhaps my goal wasn’t big enough or that I “got lucky,” but the truth is, both of my reputable degrees from an elite public university coupled with my positive mindset have allowed me to write this chapter of success.

As graduates of the program, you’ve accomplished so much already and you have so much to be proud of. Continue to demand the best from yourself, raise the bar and push yourself. Recognize that you are important, that your voice matters and that you can do remarkable things that you haven’t yet realized. You hold the keys to your success, so... go out there and be a leader and a changemaker in our community, our nation and our world. We’re all counting on you and we look forward to your continued success. You can do this!

Binghamton University opened its doors as Triple Cities College in 1946 to serve the needs of local veterans returning from service in World War II. Originally located in Endicott, five miles west of the present campus, the fledgling school was a branch of Syracuse University. Four years later, when the college was incorporated into the State University of New York, it was renamed Harpur College in honor of Robert Harpur, a Colonial teacher, patriot and pioneer, who devoted his later years to settling the area around Binghamton.

Until 1953, Harpur College was one of only two public liberal arts colleges in the state. In 1961, the campus was moved across the Susquehanna River to Vestal. Growing enrollment and a reputation for excellence soon led to the selection of Harpur College as one of four doctorate-granting university centers in the state system. In 1965, the campus was formally designated the State of New York at Binghamton. Binghamton University was adopted as its informal name in 1992.

Today, Binghamton University is known for the excellence of its students, faculty, staff and programs, and enrolls more than 17,000 students in programs leading to bachelor’s, master’s and doctoral degrees. More than 13,600 students are undergraduates and more than 3,600 are graduate students. Its curriculum, founded on the liberal arts, has expanded to include selected professional and graduate programs.

The University offers more than 100 major degree programs across its six academic divisions and is recognized as the most selective and prestigious university in the SUNY system. College guides such as the Fiske Guide to Colleges have dubbed Binghamton a “premier public university in the Northeast.” Students actively take part in internships, study-abroad programs, honors programs, Division I athletics and many of the 300+ student organizations on campus. They enjoy attractive, comfortable living-and-learning residences, and they give faculty high marks for being approachable and inspirational.

Binghamton’s faculty and students come from more than 100 countries, bringing with them many different cultures and backgrounds and representing a wealth of ideas. It has an excellent research library, outstanding computer facilities, a superb performing arts center, a teaching greenhouse, a 190-acre Nature Preserve, an Events Center and more.

Binghamton is a highly regarded research university, yet, at the same time, is as accessible as a smaller school. Retention is well above national averages, and more undergraduates are admitted into nationally ranked, rigorous graduate programs than is the norm nationally for public research universities.
The shapes, colors and trim of gowns, hoods and caps indicate the academic degree, the school granting the degree and the subject of study. The higher the degree, the more elaborate the costume. Gowns are distinguished by the shape of the sleeves. Bachelors’ gowns have pointed sleeves, masters’ have sleeves cut square at the back and doctors’ gowns also have velvet facing and three velvet bars on the sleeves that are either black or a color indicating the degree: dark blue for philosophy; light blue for education; golden yellow for science; pink for music; orange for engineering; brown for fine arts; white for arts, letters and humanities; and copper for economics.

Hoods are distinguished by length, lined with the official color(s) of the conferring institution and trimmed with a color indicating the subject in which the degree is granted. Blue and gold, the color of the State University of New York, are in the hoods of all those who will receive a doctorate today, including honorary degree recipients.

The cap or mortarboard is black, with a long tassel that may be black or the color appropriate to the subject. Only doctors’ caps may have a tassel of gold thread. It is customary for graduates to move tassels from right to left after degrees are conferred.
International Flags

Binghamton University attracts students and scholars from across New York state, the country and the world. The international flags that hang in the Events Center during Commencement ceremonies and at other venues on campus during the academic year represent the more than 100 nations our students hail from. Flown since Commencement 1997, these flags are an important visual reminder that Binghamton University’s strength lies in its people who represent a great variety of cultures, backgrounds and ideas.

The University Mace

A gift of the Class of 1993, the University mace represents the magisterial authority of the University as an institution of higher learning. Such symbols go far back into antiquity, their use proclaiming the power of the holder. Today, the mace stands for the pre-eminence of the world of knowledge.

Professor John Thomson of the Department of Studio Art undertook the commission by the Class of 1993 for the University mace. Nearly three feet long, it is made of hand-turned, polished walnut. The spherical head has two inset cast-bronze facets in the shape of medallions. One bears the seal of Binghamton University. The other carries a high-relief rendering of Pegasus, the flying horse of Greek mythology, which as a part of the seal symbolizes the University’s aspirations for its future.
ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES
If you or someone in your party is in need of accessibility services, visit our table on the Concourse near the entrance of the Events Center.

CAPTIONING
Similar to closed-captioning on television, our ceremonies will be transcribed. Real-time captioning will appear on the two overhead screens above the stage. Captioning will also be available with the online broadcast.

CEREMONY LENGTH
Each ceremony lasts approximately 90 minutes to two hours, depending on the number of graduates in the ceremony.

CONCESSIONS
Concessions are available when doors open and remain open throughout the ceremony. Food items are allowed to be taken to guest seats. Dispose of all trash at the nearest receptacle.

EMERGENCIES
Police and emergency medical staff are on site. An EMS station is located on the concourse level of the Events Center. If you need assistance, contact the closest usher. (Ushers can be identified by their volunteer name badges.)

In the event of a fire alarm, the building’s emergency horns and strobes will be activated. Guests should carefully exit the building through the nearest exit. Be aware that the closest exit may not be through the same doors through which you entered the building. Ushers will assist in the orderly evacuation of the building.

LISTING OF GRADUATES
Inclusion in the program does not constitute evidence of completion of degree or honors requirements. Undergraduate students who filed a spring 2018 Application for Degree with the University’s Student Records Office by March 23 are guaranteed to be in the program. Graduate students who filed a spring 2018 Graduate Application for Degree with the Graduate School by April 4 are guaranteed to be in the program. Those filed after the deadline may or may not appear, depending on the date of submission.

Recognition of Latin honors is based on the grade-point average at the end of the previous semester. In-progress courses are not included.

LOST CHILD
In the event a child has been separated from its family, immediately notify the nearest Events Center staff member or police officer who will attend to the child. There is a booth on the main concourse next to the main entrance for Lost Children. Event staff members will be wearing a green polo and a name tag.

GRADUATE PROCESSION
Graduates will process into the event arena in two lines, by degree level and alphabetically by department.

PHONES
Guests are asked to silence their cell phones for the duration of the ceremony. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

PHOTOGRAPHY
So that all may enjoy the majesty and joy of the occasion, we ask guests to refrain from approaching the stage to take pictures during the ceremony. Photographers from Commencement Photos, Inc. will be photographing our graduates as they cross the stage. For information on how to order prints, visit www.commencementphotos.com.

RESTROOMS
Restrooms are located on the East and West sides of the Events Center concourse.

SEATING
Guests may remain seated during the processional. Stand to sing the national anthem. For purposes of decorum and the safety of all guests, we ask that the aisles remain clear during the ceremony. Guests are asked to remain seated until the platform party, faculty and graduates have recessed. Your cooperation is appreciated.

The concourse level is reserved for handicapped-accessible seating. The stage is reserved for the platform party, senior administrators and faculty.

SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETERS
Sign language interpreters will be visible on the west side of the stage. For best viewing of the interpreters, sit in section 116.

IN THE ROLLING HILLS OF BINGHAMTON

Words by Xin Engel, music by David Engel ’86, arrangement by Daniel Fabricius

In the rolling hills of Binghamton
’Neath everchanging skies
Where two gently flowing rivers meet,
We form our cherished ties.

Together we spend these years,
United in our aim.
Through our bold pursuit of excellence,
We proudly bear your name.

Chorus:
O Binghamton, we carry thee
With us for all our time
And through us individually
Forever may you shine.
