

Tamara Burger
717 Chenango St.
Binghamton, NY 13901
724-4099

Objective

To facilitate education of nursing students and advanced practice nursing students, especially in women's health and the childbearing process. This facilitation will occur within a classroom, simulation lab, one on one and clinical site settings. To educate those in less developed countries in health care.

---

Employment

Certified Nurse Midwife

May 2015 - current

Maven Clinic.com

Provide online support and education in the area of women's health. This includes assessment and diagnosis of disease states, education, prescription support.

Clinical Instructor

Jan 2014 – current

Decker School of Nursing

Co-teach Adult Geriatric Nurse Practitioner students in their role 1 clinical course. Duties include course organization, lecture preparation and presentation, evaluation of student work.

Grading facilitator for Family Nurse Practitioner students in their role 1, family 1 and family 2 courses. Duties include lecture preparation and presentation, evaluation of student work, clinical site visits. Supportive role to students and other faculty as needed.

Clinical instructor for undergraduate accelerated track and traditional track RN students in Ob clinical rotations. Duties include observation and education of student assessments of mother/baby couplets, professional transition education, medication administration education, simulation assistance and post conference debriefing.

Currently working on course development of a Women's Health elective for graduate students that will run in Fall 2015.

Student Advisor - assisting students find creative solutions to life issues which may affect their schooling. Tracking student course work towards graduation goal.

Adjunct Faculty

Aug 2013 – Jan 2014

Decker School of Nursing

Grading facilitator for Family Nurse Practitioner students in their family 2 course. Duties included evaluation of student work and site visits.

Certified Nurse Midwife

March 2003 –2013

Wilson Hospital

Johnson City, NY

Working independently, co-managing and collaborative management of antepartum, intrapartum, postpartum women. Also gyn care including birth control, preconceptional counseling, pessary care and annual exams. Precepted midwifery students from SUNY Stonybrook and Frontier Midwifery School. Also, precepted family nurse practitioner students from SUNY Binghamton.

Labor and Delivery Nurse

May 1999 – 2003

Wilson Hospital

Johnson City, NY

Working with midwives and physicians managing antepartum and intrapartum patients.

Lamaze Instructor

Oct. 1998- Aug. 2000

Wilson Hospital

Johnson City, NY

Teaching pregnant families about the labor and delivery process, with emphasis on relaxation and breathing. Materials also included information about complications and cesarean section.

Postpartum/ Newborn Nursery Nurse

Wilson Hospital

Care of postpartum families. Main emphasis on education of families in postpartum and newborn care.

Aug 1998 – May 1999

Johnson City, NY

Orthopedic Nurse

Binghamton General Hospital

Care of surgical and medical patients. Included working with interdisciplinary care and education of patients and families on post-operative recovery and healthy life choices.

June 1997-Aug. 1998

Binghamton, NY

Education

Post Master's Nurse Educator Certificate

Binghamton University, Decker School of Nursing

2014 -2015

Binghamton, NY

Master's Degree in Midwifery

SUNY Stony Brook

2000- 2002

Stony Brook, NY

Bachelor of Science, Major in Nursing

Binghamton University, Decker School of Nursing

1995 – 1997

Binghamton, NY

Broome Community College

Liberal arts

1993-1995

Binghamton, NY

Volunteer Work

2013 - Ferkessedougou Baptist Hospital, Ivory Coast, West Africa -

Worked one month with new and seasoned midwives. Focus on education of routine prenatal care to new midwives and management of emergency situations with both new and seasoned midwives. Worked with hospital administration on protocols for midwives.

2013 - Senegal, West Africa -

Lead a team of people to a bush village where we held a women's health educational seminar. Topics included nutrition, hygiene, pregnancy management and back pain management (exercise). I was responsible for teaching portions of the hygiene teaching and the pregnancy management topics.

2012 - Senegal, West Africa -

Assisted in medical health clinic in a bush village. Managed portions of the pharmacy and assessment of fetal status in pregnant women.

2008, 2007, 2005, 2004 - Guatemala, Central America

Educated international students in Ob/gyn health care during Primary Health Care school through Youth With A Mission. Ob/Gyn content was taught over 1 week period and a second week I supervised students in a women's health clinic.

Licensure and Certification

2014 to present Working on Nurse Educator Certificate

2003 to present America College of Nurse Midwives Certification – 11090 -

2003 to present	American Midwifery Certification Board (AMCB) Certification Maintenance Cycle
2003 to present	New York State Midwifery license: f0001092-1 (Exp. 5/17)
1997 to present	New York State Registered Nurse license: 492328-1 (Exp. 5/17)
2006 to present	Certification for First Assist – ACNM program #2002
1999 to present	Neonatal Resuscitation
2006	Advanced Life Support in Obstetrics Certification (Exp. 4/11)

Committees