

FACULTY BYLAWS

Proposed change to Budget Review Committee charge

Submitted to Faculty Senate 032117

Explanation

Change is a better reflection on what the Budget Review Committee does and strengthens the faculty roles in the budget review process.

BUDGET REVIEW COMMITTEE

Current Charge:

1. to review on a regular basis all institutional budgets prior to the presentation of such budgets to SUNY Central, and prior to implementing campus budgetary policies; to report its findings to the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate. The explicit intention of this charge is to have faculty involvement in budgetary planning prior to policy or budgetary implementation, including midstream budget changes;

Proposed change to Charge:

1. to review on a regular basis revenue projections and division level allocations beginning 14 months prior to the start of the fiscal year (July 1) and prior to implementing campus budgetary policies; to report its findings to the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate. The explicit intention of this charge is to have faculty involvement in budgetary planning prior to policy or budgetary implementation, including midstream budget changes;