Directions in Historical Social Science: A Workshop

FRIDAY, APRIL 5

10 – 10:10 AM
Welcome: Richard E. Lee
Director, Fernand Braudel Center
(Binghamton University)

Opening Remarks: Dale Tomich
Deputy Director, Fernand Braudel Center
(Binghamton University)

10:15 – 10:40 AM
Ravi Sundaram
(Centre for the Study of Developing Societies, Delhi, India)
Crowds, Publics, Collectives: An Infrastructural Map

11 – 11:25 AM
Zehra Yaşın
(Ankara Development Agency, Ankara, Turkey)
Antisystemic Environmentalism: Locating Environmentalism of the Poor and the Malcontent Conceptually

1:30 – 1:55 PM
Tâmis Parron
(Universidade Federal Fluminense, Niterói, RJ, Brazil)
Slavery and World Accumulation in the Nineteenth Century: Toward a Global History of Value

Discussion:
2 – 2:30 PM
Tâmis Parron
(Universidade Federal Fluminense, Niterói, RJ, Brazil)
Center for Global Inequalities

SATURDAY, APRIL 6

10 – 10:25 AM
Adam Hanieh
(SOAS, University of London, England)
Global Capitalism and the Regional Scale: The Case of the Middle East

10:30 – 10:55 AM
Michaeline Crichlow
(Duke University, Durham, North Carolina)
Plantations, Primitive Accumulation, and the Body of the Migrant

Round-table Discussion:
1 – 2:30 PM

---

ALL SESSIONS HELD IN THE FERNAND BRAUDEL CENTER, AA–330 BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY