

Student Request for General Education Course Consideration

Binghamton University

State University of New York

This form allows students to notify a department of a course that they believe should carry a general education designation. In order for this course consideration form to be considered you must currently be enrolled in the course, and you must submit this form to your professor and the chair of the department of the course that you are enrolled in before the add/drop deadline.

To Professors and Department Chairs: In order for this course to be considered for a general education designation you must complete a general education course submission form¹ before the add/drop deadline. Any questions about the submission process can be directed to Liz Abate (labate@binghamton.edu).

Disclaimer: You should not depend upon the outcome of this consideration form to fulfill a general education requirement. You should not plan your curriculum around the acceptance of a consideration form for a course that you plan to take.
