Timothy C. Myers

Timothy C. (Tim) Myers is a businessman and philanthropist. He has been with Dick’s Sporting Goods for 35 years, involved in every aspect of the organization, and devotes much time to the work of his family’s foundation, The Shamrock Five Foundation; the “five” referring to his five children, Tim, Meaghan, Teddy, Daniel and Molly. He is also a director of the Dick’s Sporting Goods Open, a PGA Champions Tour Event held annually at En-Joie Golf Course.

The Shamrock Five Foundation most recently contributed a substantial gift to Binghamton University’s Economic Opportunity Program. The family foundation also made a significant gift to the Institute for Child Development Social Learning Center, a playground designed specifically to meet the needs of children with autism, learning disabilities and attention deficit issues. In addition, Myers was instrumental in gaining a grant from Sen. Thomas Libous to benefit the Social Learning Center.

Myers is a past board member of the Binghamton University Athletic Club and provides financial support to a number of community organizations.

He makes his home in Vestal with his wife Kim and children Tim, Meaghan, Teddy, Daniel, Molly and the newest addition to the family, Annie Kate.

Myer’s other interests include golf, golf (again), skiing and travel.
