Charles Kim ’98

Charles Kim ’98 is the managing partner of Alpine Group USVI, the holding company of the Alpine group of companies. After graduating with a BS degree in management and finance from Binghamton University, Kim first worked at Alliance Capital as a portfolio management analyst. He then moved into the field of equity trading with First New York Securities. In 2004, Kim started his own trading firm in New York – Alpine Securities Group – which quickly grew to over 40 traders.

In 2008, Kim moved the company's headquarters to St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands, where he eventually founded Alpine Group as the parent holding company of the Alpine entities. Kim was a founding member of Junior Achievement of the Virgin Islands and is involved in numerous other community and charitable events and organizations. He currently resides in St. Thomas with his wife and two sons.
