Patty Bloomer is a member of the board of directors of Silver Lane Advisors, an M&A investment bank in New York City. She sits on numerous boards, including the board of the Binghamton Bearcats Athletic Association, having served as a past president. She is also the president and founder of the E.L. Rose Conservancy, a land trust organization doing business in Pennsylvania and New York. Bloomer serves in several capacities at Trinity Memorial Church in Binghamton: Past First Woman Warden of Vestry; Lector and Eucharistic Minister, Finance Committee and Investment Committee Convener. She is an honorary board member of Aging in America, New York City.

Bloomer is retired as president of Binghamton Steel Erectors, Inc. She was an advisory board member of Binghamton University’s Decker School of Nursing; Trustee of the Year for the American Association of Homes & Services for the Aging; board member of the New York State Association of Homes & Services for the Aging; Senior Warden, Vestry for the Trinity Memorial Church in Binghamton; president of the board of Good Shepherd Fairview Home and Good Shepherd Fairview Foundation; president of the board of the Indian Hills Girl Scout Council; president of the board for the Binghamton Girls’ Club; advisory board member of the Community Foundation of Susquehanna and Wyoming Counties; and president of the board of the Silver Lake Association.

Bloomer lives in Binghamton.