To be submitted by Director of Graduate Studies

Each academic program is responsible for recommendations to the Graduate School on admission. Applicants must be admitted to the program before they can be nominated for the fellowship. Potential nominees should discuss the nomination with their respective departments.

Using the nomination form, each program is responsible for nominating applicants whom they recommend for the fellowship. Candidates for a Wu Fellowship must be newly admitted to a doctoral program in physics, chemistry, biology, geology, or mathematics. Nominations should be submitted to the Graduate School by the first Friday in February. Fellows will be announced on or before March 1st.

The nomination requires an assessment from the Graduate Director on the nominee's academic excellence. This assessment, along with the nominee's application materials, should be sent as a single PDF file to gsmf@binghamton.edu.
