The Graduate School provides Clark Fellowship Travel and Research Grants to current Clark fellows in good standing. These grants can be used for travel to conferences for the presentation of a paper or poster, or for research, including workshops, study opportunities, or materials and supplies that contribute to the successful completion of a graduate degree program. Funds must be used within 6 months (before or after) of application submission. Applications are due by 5:00 pm of the first Friday of April or November. Recipients will be notified within 30 days of the application due date. Clark fellows are eligible for up to $1000 once per academic year.
