To be admitted to the Student Teaching Practica, you must demonstrate strong academic performance as well as positive dispositions and readiness for teaching in your relationships with professors, cooperating teachers, and advisors. MAT advisors make this evaluation.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
for fall 1 . . .
____ SPED 500 Special Education for Content Area Teachers; includes field experience
____ LTRC 519 Adolescent Learners and Literacy for the Content Areas; includes field experience
____ SEC 500 Foundations of Secondary Education
____ 5XX Elective English (4 credits)

for spring 1 . . .
____ SEC 593A Philosophical and Theoretical Foundations of English; includes field experience
____ SEC 502 ESL
____ 5XX Elective English (4 credits)
____ 5XX Elective English (4 credits)

for fall 2 . . .
____ SEC 590A Practicum in Teaching in English: Grades 7-9 Student Teaching by admission only*
____ SEC 591A Practicum in Teaching in English: Student Teaching by admission only*
____ SEC 594A Curriculum and Methods for Teaching English
____ Completed and submitted Graduate Application for Degree (GAFD) form (beginning of last semester)
____ TOTAL CREDITS COMPLETED—42 GRADUATE CREDIT HOURS

CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS
____ Completion of MAT degree requirements
____ Fingerprinting (complete as soon as possible after matriculation)
____ Completion of three or more years of high school foreign language with C+ or better for each course and 85 or better on Regents OR 1 full semester of college foreign language
____ Child Abuse Workshop / DASA Workshop / Project SAVE Workshop (fall only @ BU; otherwise @ BOCES) ____ edTPA Assessment of Readiness to Teach (performance video)
____ Educating All Students (EAS)
____ Academic Literacy Skills Test (ALST)
____ Revised Content Specialty Tests (CST)

REGISTRATION
To register for Education courses, contact Jeannette Lowell at jlowell@binghamton.edu or 607.777.2727. To register for English courses, log in to BU Brain http://bubrain.binghamton.edu or contact the English Department at 777.2417. Questions? Contact Dr. McConn at mmconn@binghamton.edu or (607) 777-4678.

* To be admitted to the Student Teaching Practica, you must demonstrate strong academic performance as well as positive dispositions and readiness for teaching in your relationships with professors, cooperating teachers, and advisors. MAT advisors make this evaluation.