__ Tuesday, April 28 3:30-4:30pm

__ Wednesday, April 29 11:00-noon

A weekly meeting is held on Wednesdays from 11:00-noon so please save room in your schedule for that.

1. Why are you interested in becoming a peer adviser? What do you know about the position and how did you find out about it? What are your expectations of the internship and how do you see it fitting into your educational goals?
2. What are some of the unique qualities that you will bring to the peer advising position? Refer to the experiences listed on your resume that might illustrate some of these qualities.
3. Describe your concept of "good academic advising." If possible, include personal experiences that illustrate both good and bad academic advising.
4. Give an example of where you have encountered an issue of confidentiality and how you handled it.
5. How do you handle conflict in any given situation? (Try to give a specific example.)
6. What is your perception of the University Downtown Center and its impact on student life?
