

Do you want to Transfer Course Credits from a Different Institution and have it count towards your Psychology/Integrative Neuroscience Major?

What you need to do BEFORE taking the Transfer Course:

- Review Harpur's Transfer Policies and Forms:
<https://www.binghamton.edu/harpur/advising/transfer-credit-evaluation/index.html>
<https://www.binghamton.edu/harpur/advising/forms/index.html>
- Refer to the Harpur Transfer Course Equivalency Table:
<https://www.binghamton.edu/admissions/apply/transfer/coursework.html>
- If the institution that you want to transfer courses from is not listed on the Harpur Transfer Course Equivalency Table then:
 - Complete the Petition for future coursework to be applied to the major available on the Psychology and Integrative Neuroscience Academic Advising web pages:
<https://www.binghamton.edu/psychology/advising/forms.html>
<https://www.binghamton.edu/integrative-neuroscience/advising/forms.html>
 - You will need to attach a copy of the transfer course's syllabus to the petition

What you need to do AFTER taking the Transfer Course:

- All students who would like to obtain credit for courses from other colleges must place a request with the college you took the courses from and submit an Official Transcript to our Admissions Office:

*Office of Undergraduate Admissions
Binghamton University
PO Box 6001
Binghamton, NY 13902-6001*

Note: You may provide unofficial documentation to maintain registration in a course temporarily, but the official transcript must be provided and processed in order to fulfill degree requirements and update your Degree Works record.
