

Judaic Studies Major

ONE INTRODUCTORY COURSE

JUST 101 Introduction to Judaic Studies

Students may Substitute
JUST 111 Philosophy of Religion
RELG 101 World Religions

TWO SURVEY COURSES

JUST 201 Ancient to 1500

JUST 202 1500 to Modern

FOUR AREA COURSES (Areas and courses might include:)

History	Culture	Philosophy	Yiddish	America	Holocaust	Israel Studies	Jewish Institutions
Sephardi Memoirs Jews and Muslims Hist of Conversion Mod Jewish Hist	American Jewish Lit American Jewish Women Writers Jewish American Novel Jews and Crime	Intro Phil of Religion Faith and Reason Am Jewish Thought	YIDD 101 and 102 Mod Yiddish Culture Jewish New York Hebrew and the Death of Yiddish	Am. Jewish Thought Blacks and Jews Jewish New York American Jewish Lit Jewish American Novel	Hist of the Holocaust Holocaust Literature Post-Holocaust Lit Holocaust Fict & Poetry	Modern Israel Cultures and Society Israeli Literature Early Zionist Thought Environ History Israel-Palestine Conf	Non-Profit Orgs Jewish Social Justice Community Intern.

THREE ELECTIVES

(OPTIONAL) SENIOR RESEARCH SEMINAR OR HONORS THESIS

NOTES:

1. Four courses must be upper-level (300-400 level).
2. A relevant upper level course may be substituted for a Survey Course.
3. Students may construct "Areas of Study" in consultation with the DUS, Chair, or Faculty.

Hebrew Studies Major

The Hebrew Studies major requires students to take at least ten courses, of which 24 credits must be at the 300-400 level.

TWO SURVEY JUDAIC STUDIES COURSES
JUST 201 Ancient to 1500	JUST 202 1500 to Modern

LANGUAGE COURSES	LITERATURE COURSES
HEBR 101 Hebrew I HEBR 102 Hebrew II HEBR 203 Hebrew III HEBR 204 Intermediate Hebrew HEBR 311 Texts and Conversations I HEBR 312 Texts and Conversations II	Intro to Israeli Literature Kibbutz Literature Israeli-Palestinian Conflict in Literature

LITERATURE COURSES
Intro to Israeli Literature Kibbutz Literature Israeli-Palestinian Conflict in Literature

NOTES:

1. Students who place out of 200-level Hebrew language courses may substitute courses in Israeli literature, Yiddish language, Arabic language, and Israel Studies chosen in consultation with the Chair or Director of Undergraduate Studies.
2. No P/F courses may count toward the major.
3. No courses with grades lower than a "C" may count toward the major.

Judaic Studies Minor

The Judaic Studies minor requires that a student take at least six courses.

ONE INTRODUCTORY COURSE
JUST 101 Introduction to Judaic Studies	Students may Substitute JUST 111 Philosophy of Religion RELG 101 World Religions

TWO SURVEY COURSES
JUST 201 Ancient to 1500	JUST 202 1500 to Modern

THREE AREA COURSES (Areas and courses might include:)
History Sephardi Memoirs Jews and Muslims Hist of Conversion Mod Jewish Hist	Culture American Jewish Lit American Jewish Women Writers Jewish American Novel Jews and Crime	Philosophy Intro Phil of Religion Faith and Reason Am Jewish Thought	Yiddish YIDD 101 and 102 Mod Yiddish Culture Jewish New York Hebrew and the Death of Yiddish	America Am. Jewish Thought Blacks and Jews Jewish New York American Jewish Lit Jewish American Novel American Jewish Women Writers	Holocaust Hist of the Holocaust Holocaust Literature Post-Holocaust Lit Holocaust Fict & Poetry	Israel Studies Modern Israel Cultures and Society Israeli Literature Early Zionist Thought Environ History Israel-Palestine Conf	Jewish Institutions Non-Profit Orgs Jewish Social Justice Community Intern.

Hebrew Minor

The Hebrew minor requires that a student take at least six courses

LANGUAGE COURSES	LITERATURE COURSES
HEBR 101 Hebrew I HEBR 102 Hebrew II HEBR 203 Hebrew III HEBR 204 Intermediate Hebrew HEBR 311 Texts and Conversations I HEBR 312 Texts and Conversations II	Intro to Israeli Literature Kibbutz Literature Israeli-Palestinian Conflict in Literature

Notes:

1. Only courses above HEBR 102 count toward the minor.
2. At least two of the courses have to be in the 300-400 level.
3. At least two of the courses have to be taken at Binghamton University.
4. Courses in Yiddish language and literature may be counted toward the Hebrew minor.
5. No course with a grade lower than C and no P/F courses can be counted toward the Hebrew minor.

Israel Studies Minor

TWO CORE COURSES

ISRL 101 Modern Israel
ISRL 120 Introduction to Israeli Literature
ISRL 227 Cultures and Society in Israel

TWO LANGUAGE OR LITERATURE COURSES

2 courses above the 102 level in either Hebrew or Arabic language, or literature

TWO - FOUR AREA COURSES (Areas and courses might include:)

History

Hiking the Holy Land
Israel-Palestine Conflict
Environmental History

Culture and Society

Ethnography of Israel-Palestine
Visual Art

Literature

Kibbutz Literature
Israeli-Palestinian Conflict in Literature

Notes:

1. Minors at Binghamton University require six 4-credit courses (24 credits).
2. Half of the courses for the minor must at the 300 or 400 level.
3. A minimum of four courses (16 credits) must be independent of any other major or minor. So, only two courses can overlap with a major or a different minor.
4. At least 3 courses used for the minor must be taken at Binghamton University.
5. Students who pass the test of language proficiency in either Hebrew or Arabic will be required to substitute 2 courses for the language requirement.

Religious Studies Minor

Minimum of 6 courses (24 credit hours). Students may count two courses from their major area of study toward the minor.

TWO FOUNDATIONAL COURSES

Including: RELG 101 World Religions

FOUR UPPER LEVEL COURSES

Including: JUST 311 Faith and Reason

DISTRIBUTION REQUIREMENTS (at least two from each)

Discipline

Anthropology
Comparative Literature
History
Philosophy
Psychology
Sociology

Religious Traditions

African Religions
Asian Religions
Islam
Judaism
Christianity

Notes:

1. At least one course must carry the General Education “C” designation.
2. No courses which count toward the minor may be taken P/F.
3. A grade of C or better is necessary for a course to count towards the Minor.