MARK KULIKOWSKI COLLECTION

The Mark Kulikowski Collection, is a diverse collection of historical material from and about the Broome County region. Part of the Local History Collection, this collection consists of twenty-one linear feet of area newsletters, programs, bulletins, newspapers, booklets, magazines, music and music scores, posters and flyers, photographs, postcards and artifacts. Memorabilia includes items such as trade and business cards, trade tokens from local businesses, and commemorative envelopes and pins. Over 190 books about local businesses, industries, municipalities, churches and life in the Broome County area are also part of the collection. These books can be found on the Binghamton University Libraries' website with a keyword search on Mark Kulikowski.

Mark Kulikowski, who grew up in the Triple Cities region, has been donating materials to the Local History Collection since 2007, in an effort to aid in the preservation of this region's history. This collection enhances, as well as, compliments materials currently housed in the Local History Collection.

Kulikowski is an alumnus of the State University of New York at Binghamton, receiving his Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts and Ph.D. degrees in History 1976, 1977 and 1982 respectively. He also earned a Certificate in Russian and East European Studies from State University of New York at Binghamton (1976). He is an Associate Professor of History at the State University of New York at Oswego, with expertise in modern Russian and U.S. diplomatic history. Prior to his career at State University of New York at Oswego, Professor Kulikowski was a tutor at Empire State College, State University of New York (1981) and a lecturer for the History Department at SUNY Binghamton (1981).

Kulikowski has written many articles pertaining to Russian and East European society and frequently appearing in publications such as Polish American Studies, Solanus, and Modern Encyclopedia of Russian and Soviet History. His well-known book, Bibliography of Slavic Mythology, was published in 1989. He has also reviewed over forty books that can be found in publications such as Polish American Studies, Solanus, Slavic & East European Information Resources, Russian History, Polish Review, Slavic Review, and East Central Europe. He was a long time member of the editorial board of Polish American Studies, as well a contributing editor of the American Bibliography of Slavic & East European Studies.

Professor Kulikowski has participated in several research trips and projects and has presented a number of papers and lectures at several Colleges and Universities throughout New York State, North Carolina, Florida and Georgia. He has served as a long time consultant for the European Division, Library of Congress (since 1987), and the New York Public Library for the Performing Arts at Lincoln Center (since 1996). He has also been a consultant for the Smithsonian Institution Press, Simon & Shuster Press, Oswego County (N. Y.) Historical Society Project, and Oswego County (N.Y.) Teachers Center. Since 2005 he has worked extensively with the Photographic Division and Navy Library of the Navy History and Heritage Command in Washington. He has acquired several hundred items for their collections.

Kulikowski is affiliated to the American Historical Association, American Association of the Advancement of Slavic Studies, and the Polish American Historical Association. In 2005 he received the Distinguished Service Award from the Polish American Historical Association.
