RESULT SECTION (data set):
The results section, refers to the new data set which is created by querying the Operational Data Store (ODS). The information shown in the results section will depend on the filters used as well as the request line items used. Additional data manipulation can be done in this section.