

IFC Constitution

Last Revised: 9/23/13

PREAMBLE

The Inter-Fraternal Council is established to promote a forum for communication, unity, and fraternalism amongst all the social fraternities at Binghamton University. The fraternities that comprise this council shall be dedicated not only to their respective organizations, but the college community as a whole. By way of our association in this council we shall strive to effectually better our university and uphold its overall mission by combining our resources, ideas, and goals so as to collectively reach our fullest potential.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Inter-Fraternity Council is to establish a body that shall:

- A. Encourage better understanding and closer communication among the social fraternities.
- B. Represent, advise, and regulate the fraternities at Binghamton University in accordance with the provisions of this constitution and the Fraternity/Sorority Recognition and Governance Policy.
- C. Provide a central warehouse for the receiving and distribution of information to all social fraternities.
- D. Foster amicable relations amongst all member fraternities at Binghamton University.
- E. Act as the legislative and judicial body in matters pertaining to member fraternities.
- F. Promote and foster a partnership with the other Greek councils at Binghamton University

Article I

Name

The name of the organization established to enforce this constitution shall be the InterFraternity Council (IFC) at Binghamton University, State University of New York.

Article II

Membership

Section 1: Membership Criteria

- A. All social fraternities recognized by the University, as nominated by the IFC, shall be members of the IFC and subject to its regulations, policies, and procedures prescribed under this constitution.
- B. In order for any undergraduate Fraternity or colony to be recognized at Binghamton University, they must also be recognized by their respective national headquarters. This stipulation does not apply to Tau Alpha Upsilon.

Section 2: All chapters or groups must be recognized by Binghamton University's Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life and the IFC.

Section 3: Types of Membership

- A. Full membership: the rights of a full member shall consist of full voting privileges, in addition to full social, sports, rush and philanthropic privileges within the IFC provided the group maintains recognition with the University and their respective national headquarters.
- B. Probationary membership: the rights of a temporary member shall consist of full social, sports, rush, and philanthropic privileges within the IFC, however such rights may be limited at the discretion of the IFC Executive Board. Probationary members are not able to vote at IFC meetings or hold office on the IFC Executive Board.

- C. Suspended membership: the rights of a suspended member shall be limited as dictated by the IFC Executive Board and Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life. Suspended members are still required to attend weekly IFC meetings and pay dues, but will not have the ability to vote on matters.

Section 4: Academic Requirements of Membership

- A. All chapters shall have a Scholarship/ Academic Chair to monitor the academic progress of their respective chapters and students pledging their fraternity so as to ensure optimal academic performance.
- B. To remain in good standing with IFC, an active chapter must maintain a chapter grade point average of at least 2.75 each semester. Failure to remain in good standing will result in the following:
 - 1. The Scholarship Chair and Chapter President must meet with the IFC Judicial Board to develop a scholarship plan and track the academic progress of the chapter.
 - 2. Two consecutive semesters without being in good standing will result in the Chapter losing voting privileges for one semester.
 - 3. Three consecutive semesters of failing to achieve good standing will result in the Chapter being referred to the IFC Judicial Board wherein they shall prescribe a punishment deemed appropriate.
- C. New member classes shall have an average grade point average of 2.50 in the semester they are pledging. Failure to achieve the given grade point average will result in the consequences as they are outlined in Article 2.4.B.

Section 5: Philanthropy/ Community Service Requirements of Membership

- A. All chapters shall have a Philanthropy Chair to ensure their chapter is an active, charitable, and contributing member to the community by planning philanthropy events and community service.
