Welcome to Spanish!

Major Overview:
The major in Spanish language provides students with a strong foundation in oral and written communication skills, as well as solid training in textual and cultural analysis. As students progress within the major, a whole world of culture, history and linguistic knowledge opens through the upper-level elective courses.

Students typically double major in Spanish and a different discipline in the humanities or social/natural sciences to

Courses:
Sample selection of upper-level courses for Spanish majors:

- Topics in Spanish Culture: “Youth and Contemporary Issues in Spain”
- Topics in Spanish Literature: “Contemporary Spanish Theatre”
- Topics in Latin American Culture: “Social Conflict through Children’s Eyes”
- Topics in Latin American Literature: “Latin American Horror Stories”
- Topics in Language and Linguistics: “Spanish Phonetics and Phonology”

To view the complete list of Spanish courses, click courses.
[http://www.binghamton.edu/romance-major-spanish.html]

Research Areas:
The professors in the Spanish major are not only outstanding educators but also recognized scholars within their respective fields of research, which include:

- Hispanic sociolinguistics
- Caribbean literature and culture
- Southern Cone literature and culture
- Cervantes, Picaresque novel and Spanish poetry
- 20th-century Spanish literature
- Early modern literature
- Colonial literature and Transatlantic studies
Post-Graduation:

Potential careers: The linguistic and communication skills acquired in the Spanish major, along with the critical thinking and the overall cultural awareness gained, prepare our students to pursue employment in fields of teaching, translation and interpretation, academic publishing, communication, art curation, tourism and international aid, among others.

Students who graduate with a Spanish major also pursue a myriad of graduate degrees including: PhD (typically, but not exclusively, in Hispanic studies or comparative literature), Master of Spanish, Master of Arts in Master in Social Work, Masters in Latin American Studies.

Additional Resources:

Many Spanish majors choose to study abroad to immerse themselves in the target culture and language. For more information, click study abroad. [http://binghamton-oip.terradotta.com/]

Some Spanish majors choose to complete an accelerated degree program to earn their BA in Spanish as well as their MA/MPA/MAT in five years. For more information, click accelerated degree. [http://www.binghamton.edu/romance/grad-accel.html]

For frequently asked questions and more detailed information on placement, credit transfer, study-abroad destinations and TAships, click FAQs. [https://drive.google.com/drive/u/0/#folders/0B1h_XMZREKKLZzJfbVImMI9YTHM]

For news, events and activities, follow us on Facebook. [https://www.facebook.com/buromlang]

Thank you for watching!

For more information contact the Romance Languages and Literatures Department at:
romlang@binghamton.edu
or (607) 777-2645