

Patrick J. Reilly

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Dedicated, reliable police officer with 23+ years' experience in investigations, supporting patrol officers and training. Adept at managing multiple assignments and collaborating with a broad array of campus and municipal police departments. Appreciation for the cultural diversity of the university and the surrounding communities. Proficient in computer applications that deal with law enforcement; understand the operational aspect of University Police and Binghamton University administration.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Deputy Chief of Police 2018- Present

New York state University Police at Binghamton University

Supervise all Investigators, Tech Sergeant and coordinate training for department personnel.

- Coordinate with investigators on follow-ups of reports both criminal and non- criminal.
- Maintain knowledge of computer applications/ assist Tech Sergeant in upkeep.
- Continue to oversee the lost/found property department and evidence.
- Arrange training both in service and in external for department personnel.
- Recommend and implement policies and procedures.
- Attend meetings and other official functions as a representative of the Chief.

Police Investigator, 2011- 2018

New York State University Police at Binghamton University

Responsible for investigations, which may extend over periods of week or months and require the application of the full range of interviewing and investigative techniques.

- Supervise university police officers and lieutenants with the management of criminal/ judicial cases.
- Coordinate and collaborate with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies including local courts.
- Supervise 4-5 officers in the lost/found property department.
- Maintain sealed/closed case files while overseeing responsible civilian personnel.
- Developed and instructed in-service training to other members of University Police; topics included LiveScan, Tracs, Evidence and Lost/Found property updates and review.
- Meet regularly with Pipe Dream reporters; Police Beat.

Police Officer, 1994-2011

New York State University Police at Binghamton University

Ability to work alone and exercise independent judgment in performing duties while being in substantial contact with public and other law enforcement personnel.

- Served as a Field Training Officer for incoming police officer, made a positive impact.
- Represented the University in a professional manner and built a relationship with those that include the University community, its student's faculty and staff.
- Educate myself on new trends influencing college/universities students.

EDUCATION

State of New York Municipal Police Training Council
Broome Community College – Associate Degree in Criminal Justice

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The Police Executive Development Program, Penn State Outreach Justice and Safety Institute, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania
Leadership Development Program, Binghamton University
Professional Development Training Investigators, New York State University Police, Albany, New York
Internal Affairs Investigations, Daigle Law Group, LLC, Cheektowaga, New York
Supervisory and Leadership Development, Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York