

Older Adult Audit Program

Instructor Approval Form

New York state law permits residents 60 years or older to audit credit-bearing classes at state-affiliated campuses free of charge. Auditors participate fully in classes, but there is no college credit, nor are any formal records kept of involvement. For more information on the Older Adult Audit Program at Binghamton University, visit our website: <https://www.binghamton.edu/registrar/student/olderadultauditprogram.html>
