

Fleishman Center Program Menu for Residential Life

One of the many benefits of living within a residential community on campus is the Fleishman Center's unique "Career Consultant in Residence" model. Career consultants work with students where they live to help them explore majors and careers, develop their résumé and cover letters, search for jobs and internships, and explore graduate school options. Programming is specifically designed to engage students and enhance their career and professional development.

The Basics

- Overview for Fleishman Center Services
- Career Exploration
- Financial Wellness-sponsored by Visions Federal Credit Union
- Internship and Job Search
- Graduate and Professional School Planning
- Résumé and Cover Letters
- Networking and Professionalism
- What Can I Do with a Major in _____ ex: Biology, English, Psychology, Economics

Specialty

- Building a Résumé from Scratch
- Résumé Critique Workshop
- How to Develop a LinkedIn Profile and Utilize It's Features
- What Can I Do with a Major in _____ ex: Biology, English, Psychology, Economics (great for learning communities)
- How to Leverage your Experience...student athlete, Greek Life, research
- Using Social Media for the Job and Internship Search
- Understanding Your Communication Style as it Relates to a Work Environment
- Internship Panel
- Navigating the Job and Internship Fair
- Career Development Trivia with Kahoot

First/Second Year Students

- Career Exploration
- How to Gain Experience _____ ex: Job shadowing, internships, informational interviewing
- How to Leverage Alumni Relationships
- Transferable Skills

Third/Fourth/Graduate Students

- Leveraging Your Alumni Network
- Preparing Your 30-Second Commercial
- Job and Internship Search Strategies
- Preparing for Graduate School

Diversity

- Understanding What Is a Right Fit for You
- What Should I Put on a Résumé? (political views, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation)

Topics work best in a collaborative presentation style. Examples include Services for Students with Disabilities, Multicultural Resource Center or the LGBTQ Center.

Wellness

- Understanding Your Values
- Self Advocacy in the Workplace

Be creative! Programs can be tailored to your community based on aspects such as:

- The academic year of your residents
- Majors/areas of interest
- Learning communities

To request a program for your community, fill out the Program Request Form online at binghamton.edu/ccpd or contact one of the Fleishman Center's Career Consultants in Residence:

Coming Soon

Hinman
College-in-the-Woods

Laura O'Neill '07, MA '08
loniell@binghamton.edu

Hillside
Susquehanna
Mountainview

Jordan Smith
jmsmith@binghamton.edu

Newing
Dickinson