Thanks for a great Festival of the Arts and Student Showcase!

Help us out!

Before many of you take your well-deserved summer break, I wanted to ask three things:

- If you took any photos of any of the events, please save your photos or videos here
- If you have any Festival comments, questions, ideas or suggestions, please fill this two-question feedback form
- Please follow our new School of the Arts Instagram account @arts.binghamtonu

Last week we completed our first Festival of the Arts and Student Showcase – which brought together student creations, research, and performance from all of our departments: Art & Design, Art History, Cinema, Music, and Theatre, as well as our partner-program Creative Writing, the Binghamton University Art Museum, and the Anderson Center for the Performing Arts. There were performances, talks, exhibitions, screenings, and silk-screening School of the Arts themed art works by Cinema student Ellie Borzilleri.

It was a great success, with alumni, prospective students, parents, students and the local community attending. We made the front page of the Press and Sun Bulletin, and were featured on local TV: WBNG/ "Around the Tiers" with Lauren Del Valle and WSKG/ "Arts in Depth" with Bill Snyder.

I want to thank you for all you did to make this happen. While I ran around in the background, it was the work you did: students, faculty and staff – that made the Festival such a success. As many of you know, I had to miss it all because of my knee surgery, but I still heard so many great things about the work people experienced. And it definitely raised the profile of the Arts at Binghamton University.

Thanks again for all you do,
