CoCo Seminar Series: Spring 2019

 The seminars can be taken as a 1-credit graduate course SSIE/BME-524 ***

Wednesday 11:00am-12:00pm
Engineering Building H-9 (Knoll-MacDonald Commons / Watson Commons)
With refreshments; followed by open discussions

January 30: Chou-Yu (Joey) Tsai (Management, Binghamton University)
"Effects of Relational Schema Congruence on Leader-Member Exchange"

February 13: Shiqi Zhang (Computer Science, Binghamton University)
"Robot Decision Making in Human-Inhabited, Collaborative Environments"

February 27: Seden Akcinaroglu (Political Science, Binghamton University)
(title TBA)

March 13: Changqing Cheng (Systems Science and Industrial Engineering, Binghamton University)
"Simulation, Design and Monitoring for Time-Delay Complex Systems"

March 27: Hiroki Sayama (Systems Science and Industrial Engineering, Binghamton University)
"Hash Chemistry: An Open-Ended Evolutionary System with Cardinality Leap and Universal Fitness Evaluation"

April 17: Kenneth Kurtz (Psychology, Binghamton University) & Andreas Pape (Economics, Binghamton University)
(title TBA)

Contact Hiroki Sayama (sayama@binghamton.edu), Andreas Pape (apape@binghamton.edu) or Ximeng Chen (xchen80@binghamton.edu) for more information

http://coco.binghamton.edu/