Binghamton University – Health Promotion and Prevention Services
20:1 Bystander Intervention Program: Graduate Assistantship (full-time)

The office of Health Promotion and Prevention Services is dedicated to promoting psychological well-being that enriches personal and academic growth. Health Promotion and Prevention is a newly formed office that provides education, outreach and prevention services to the students at Binghamton University addressing a wide variety of health education areas.

The graduate assistant works to support Health Promotion and Prevention Services goal to meet the goals of increasing awareness and decreasing stigma of mental health issues and promoting prevention efforts through outreach initiatives.

Description of Duties

The GA may aid the 20:1 Bystander Intervention specialist and co-leader in the following ways:

• Attend and co-teach the 20:1 weekly seminar
• Help supervise 20:1 interns, including providing midterm evaluations and attending education program in order to give feedback
• Contact Greek Presidents and organize presentations for 20:1 peer educators/undergraduate interns
• Maintain calendar of presentations and organize schedule of interns
• Contact FYE instructors and organize presentations, and other presentations as assigned
• Organize other 20:1 events, i.e. Res Life presentations, Spring Fling, Health Fair, New Member Ed and other events
• Re-write new 20:1 brochure
• Enter data from pre/post surveys
• Analyze data
• Keep 20:1 paper work, i.e. Google calendar, time sheets, orders for shirts etc.
• Help to recruit and interview new peer educators for the next year

Qualifications

Candidates must be accepted into a Binghamton University graduate program for the 2018-2019 academic year. Candidates must be a Masters level student in the field of social work, psychology, counseling, or student affairs related field. He/she must have some knowledge of student mental health issues, sexual assault/sexual trauma issues, sexual consent, bystander behavior and/or a strong interest in learning more about these areas. Some programmatic experience on a collegiate level is desired. This person must have excellent communication skills, both verbal and written, and must be comfortable with public speaking. Computer and organizational skills are a must. SPSS or similar program skill a must. Demonstrated leadership ability as well as the ability to work with diverse groups highly preferred.

Stipend

The assistantship includes a base stipend for the academic year of $9,800 paid biweekly. This position is represented by the Graduate Student Employees Union (GSEU) and the stipend includes all potential union-negotiated raises applicable for the academic year. Twenty hours of work per week is expected.
TO APPLY

Persons interested should submit the general application on the Student Affairs website. Questions related to this position should be directed to Dara Raboy, LCSW-R at piccian@binghamton.edu.